Outside the Classroom Winter 2010

MK Gallery offers plenty of opportunities for learning 'Outside the Classroom'.

Lost & Found

Milton Keynes Gallery's Young People's Project was established in 2007 with a three year grant from The Big Lottery. The group, which has re-branded itself Lost & Found, develops creative opportunities for young people aged 15-24 years.

MK2morrow: One Small Step for Milton Keynes

An exhibition by Black Dogs, presented by Lost & Found at MK Gallery

9 December – 2 January 2010

(Launch Night on Thursday 9 December, All welcome)

This exhibition offers a fantastic opportunity to extend creative writing skills, contribute to a collaborative process or play a part in shaping the future of a 'bigger or better MK'! The exhibition comprises three parts; The Pub at the End of the Universe, Massive Tiny Space Colony and The MK2 Survival Kit.

Visit www.MK2morrow.co.uk for further details and how to contribute.

This exhibition is kindly supported by Signarama, Milton Keynes

Family Evening

Friday 10th December, 17:00 – 19:30

A festive evening for young people and families. Please join us for a glass of mulled wine, a mince pie and the chance to enjoy our Christmas exhibition. There will also be the opportunity to buy that extra special Christmas present from the selection of arts and crafts stalls, all displaying the work of local artists. For further information or to be involved in the event please contact vmayes@mkgallery.org.

MK Gallery Project Space Call for Proposals

MK Gallery's Learning Team is now welcoming proposals from creative individuals, schools and community groups, who wish to present new or existing work within The Project Space in 2011. The aim is to commission and present contemporary visual art practices and exhibitions that will inspire, excite and challenge people of all ages, created for, and by, members of the local community. To submit a proposal please visit www.mkgallery.org and click on Project Space.
