

MK Gallery is holding an online event called:

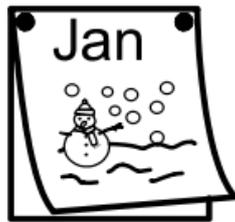

‘How to Improve Inclusion and Diversity in Milton Keynes’

The event is about:

- Disability
- Sensory impairment
- Neuro diversity

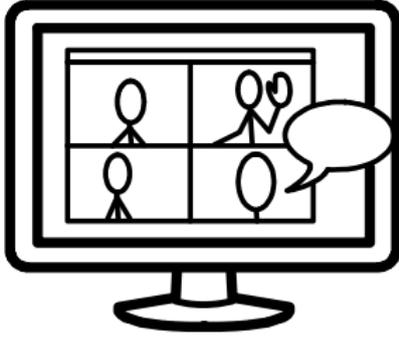

28th

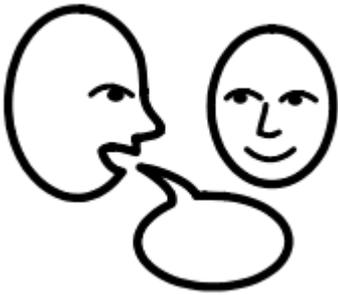

The event is on 28th of January.

The event is 6:30pm - 8pm.

The event will be held on Zoom.

There will be 6-8 people speaking.

Each speaker is a key thinker.

The event will include:

- British Sign Language interpretation (BSL)
- Captions
- Audio Description of each speaker

If you would like to see the captions on your screen during the event you will need to click 'CC'.

To book a place at this event please visit the MK Gallery website.

-  Workshop
-  Comedy
-  Talk
-  City Club
-  Performance

You can find the event by clicking on the 'What's On' tab at the top of the website and then clicking on 'Talk' on the left-hand side of the screen.

You will be able to book your place by clicking the Zoom link on the event webpage.

If you would like to share any access requirements you will be able to type them into the online booking form.

This event will be recorded.

The Speakers include:

Ernie Boddington is Chair of Trustees for MK Centre for Integrated Living (CIL) a user-led organisation that provides advice, information and assistance to the Disabled community in and around MK.

Amanda Carter Philpott is a trainer, writer, educator, public speaker, Hate Crime Champion, Domestic Violence Champion, and disability activist in the local community who runs a company called Pandora Inc CIC.

Samuel Dore is an award-winning filmmaker, photographer and graphic designer whose work can be seen via burstardrum.net. Being profoundly Deaf and a huge film buff, he is very vocal about better access to films and is a BSL (British Sign Language) user.

Polly Kempson is Deputy Headteacher at the Pace Centre, an independent school in Aylesbury that specialises in the education of children with cerebral palsy, motor disorders, and related conditions (including sensory impairments or communication difficulties).

Angela Novell is the CEO of award-winning local disability charity MK SNAP, Former Director of Education MK Dons Sport & Education Trust and Founder President of Soroptimist International MK, working to empower women & girls.

Ian Revell is the CEO of the MK Community Foundation, a leading grant-making charity helping to make Milton Keynes a great place to live and work.

Kerry Thompson is a Multi-award winner and one of the UK's leading disability advocates and blogger with a rare form of Muscular Dystrophy.