

MK Gallery is holding an online event called:

'Sharing Art and Us'

The event is about MK Gallery's 'Art and Us' art workshops for families, children and young people who have disabilities or are neuro diverse.

We will talk and think about:

- What has happened since we started this work in 2018
- What we would like to happen in the future

20th

The event is on 20th of February.

The event is 11am - 1pm.

The event will be held on Zoom.

There will be 10-12 people speaking.

Some speakers will be live. Other speakers will be pre-recorded.

Each speaker has a connection to art and/or disability.

The event will include:

- British Sign Language interpretation (BSL)
- Captions
- Audio Description of each speaker

If you would like to see the captions on your screen during the event you will need to click 'CC'.

To book a place at this event please visit the MK Gallery website.

You can find the event by clicking on the magnifying glass at the top right of the screen, typing 'Sharing Art and Us' and pressing enter.

You will be able to book your place by clicking the booking link on the event webpage.

If you would like to share any access requirements you will be able to type them into the online booking form.

Please tell us if you are a BSL user so that we can help you to setup your Zoom screen so the interpreter is visible at all times.

This event will be recorded.

The full list of speakers will be updated on the MK Gallery website.
