This short workshop will celebrate the playful and sensory quality of Art and Us sessions by sharing how to make a bubble snake blower! This session is planned and delivered by Art and Us family participants. If you would like to 'make along' with them during the workshop, please gather the following materials in advance:
  - A sock
  - A plastic bottle cut in half
  - An elastic band
  - A bowl with a small amount of water and drop of washing up liquid
  - A bowl or tray to catch your bubbles

Please remember to take care if you're using any liquids near your Zoom device and to support your children to take part.

13:00 – 13:10

- Optional question and answer section: Bethany Mitchell, Susan Akhtar, Esther Springett and Alison Baldwin will be available to respond to questions that have arisen throughout today's sessions and to hear your thoughts and feedback.
